

New World Paper Products & Janitorial Supplies located in Ottawa is looking for a mature and reliable Executive Assistant/Administrative Assistant to support their managing team.

We are looking for someone with great knowledge of administration practices, including file management, office procedures and logistics to:

- Establish and co-ordinate administrative policies and procedures
- Analyze incoming and outgoing memoranda, submissions and reports
- Prepare the production and submission of summary briefs and reports
- Prepare agendas and make arrangements for annual meetings
- Conduct research
- Compile data and prepare papers for consideration and presentation
- Meet with individuals, staff and new employees to discuss issues and assess and recommend various courses of action based on meetings
- Liaise with suppliers
- Prepare reports, memos, letters, administer contracts and other documents
- Train and supervise staff
- Different clerical task
- Strong English written and oral communication skills
- 3 years diploma or university bachelor's degree OR an equivalent combination of education and relevant experience
- 15$ to 22$/hour depending on experience
- Permanent Full-time position/ 37.5 hours/week
- Group insurance available

Soft skills: Problem Solving, Decision Making, Multi tasker, Critical Thinking, Fast learner, Planning and Organizing task, continuing learning and time management

Apply by email at careers@newworldpaper.ca and address your cover letter and resume to Hiring manager by August 27th, 2018. Start date ASAP.